DESCRIPTION

The semi-elliptical tops veneered in well-figured mahogany and banded in burr yew wood and Goncalo

Alvez. The frieze similarly veneered with densely figured burr yew and Goncalo Alvez. The four tapering legs also inlaid and headed by oval paterae.

This exceptional pair of tables dating from the last quarter of the eighteenth century closely follow the designs of Thomas Sheraton. They are particularly unusual due to their size and the use of burr yew wood panels throughout. The colour and timber is outstanding it they are particularly unusual being a pair.
